

Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh celebrates 50 Years of Service

MUMBAI : Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh, a Charitable Trust, active mainly in the field of education besides other spheres of social service is celebrating its Golden Jubilee this year. This trust has established and manages Shri. J J T University at Jhunjhunu, Rajasthan. To make this occasion memorable, day long celebrations had been organised on 6th April 2012 at the Bhaidas Auditorium, Vile Parle West, Mumbai.

The university conferred an Honorary D.Litt. upon H.H. Mahamandaleshwar of Sanyas Ashram Vishweshwaranand ji Giri, President and trustee of Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh, Educationist Vinod Tibrewala and well known writer Sanwarmal Sanganeria, in the auspicious presence of honorable Governors, Ministers, Writers, Educationists and other eminent personalities.

In the first phase, saints were honoured. This session was mainly devoted to saints and sermons. Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh has established several schools and colleges during the last 50 years. Many of the ex students of these institutions are now well known names in their respective fields. Some of them were felicitated in the second session. The glorious history of Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh was presented in the form of a musical dance drama. There was another musical show that depicted the history of cultural harmony between Rajasthan and Maharashtra.

The trustees of the Seva Sangh, donors and other distinguished guests were honoured in the 3rd session. A cultural show, presented by Veena Cassettes of Jaipur entertained the audience in the evening.
