

Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh celebrates 50 years

MUMBAI: Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh is a registered charitable trust imparting education from K.G to P.G to almost 9000 students at J.B. Nagar Andheri, Mumbai. The trust has also established a university in Jhunjunu Rajasthan in the name of Shri Jagdish Prasad Jhaabarmal Tibrewala University.

The trust has completed its valuable service of 50 years. To celebrate the golden jubilee function as well as the first and special convocation of Shri JTT University, a grand program was organized at Bhaidas Hall, Vile Parle, Mumbai on 6th April 2012.

In the first program the first and special convocation of Shri JTT University was celebrated and H-E Honorable Governor of Meghalaya Shri Ranjit

Shekar Mausahari, H-E Honorable Governor Smt Kamaladevi Beniwal of Gujarat and H-E Honorable Governor Shri Jogender J Singh of Arunachal Pradesh were given honorary D.Litt. degree.

Along with them Honorable Swami Shri 1008 Mahamandaleshwar Shri Vishveshvaranand Giriji Maharaj, Honorable Shri Vijay D. Patil Chancellor Shri DY Patil University, Shri Sawarmal Sanghaneria, a well known writer of north east region and Shri Vinod D. Tibrewala Chancellor Shri JTT University, trusty and president of Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh were also given honorary D.Litt. degree.

This program was attended by various chancellors, educationists, ministers, executives and students perusing higher education. Honorable H-E the Governor of Gujarat in her address assured to the office bearer of Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh that she will use her good office to provide all help for the promotion of education in Rajasthan and she agreed with the idea to make Rajasthan a tourist hub of education.

Honorable H-E the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh said that there should be youth and faculty exchange program in a big way so that people of Arunachal can come closer to the rest of their counterparts. He assured that Arunachal Pradesh is very safe and he invited people to visit Arunachal Pradesh as it is one of the best tourist spots of the world.

Honorable H-E the Governor of Meghalaya in his powerful speech drew the attention of the student that success in life can be achieved in life only through hard work and he also made a desire that the youth of India should not fall into the concept of false prosperity through unwanted means and they should think of nation first.

All the three governors expressed their gratitude for honoring them with the honorary D.Litt. degree.

All the other four dignitaries who all received the degree emphasized that students should work hard and should equip themselves with varied knowledge and inculcate good values and should not forget their value system and culture and they should work hard to become great leaders and always aim to be job providers.

The other two sessions were also organized very well and various cultural programs were conducted by the students of various institutions run by Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh and a cultural program by Shri Maluji of Veena production was also exhibited being Hanuman Jayanti it started with Hanuman Chalisa, Saraswati Vandana and ended with national anthem.