

Enclosure-5.6

Apart from class room instructions other avenues of learning provided for the students to encourage learning ability and skill knowledge:

1. Project: Students shall be required to submit project reports as per respective specialization. Students are involved as key organizers to impart leadership skill & personality development through selected project topic. Major and Minor Projects to carried out in the departments of Engineering, Law, Management and Yoga.

2. Internship: Students are encouraged to go for internship program. We arranged Industry Internship through campus interview. We also trained student for corporate relationship management by providing corporate companies.

3. Field Training: Students are sent for field training and Industrial Visits. Plantation & Green Energy programme to motivate students for green revolution. We encourage student to participate in various social awareness projects.

4. Seminar: Students are required to give presentations in Seminars, Quizzes and debates are also arranged on a regular basis. Workshops and developmental programmes are regularly arranged for the student personality development; Students orientation programme was arranged for student's awareness, Special expert lectures series are arranged for student skill enhancement.

5. Campus Placement: We arranged the campus interviews with collaborated companies for placement program, during this period there organization are invited to be on campus. The placement process is owned by the Placement Committee which managed process about campus interview.

6. Pre-Placement Training: We arranged pre-placement training for final year student of the university. To make student ready for Expected workplace behaviour to reach your Prospective Employer, focusing on Writing CVs and Cover Letter, Facing Group Discussion, Facing Interviews, Handling Subject specific Aptitude Tests.

7. Learning Through Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR): A few campaigns running by university to enhance student awareness about Corporate Social responsibility.