

Enclosure 5.7

University emphasized application/practical based exam system. University has continuous internal evaluation system. Each course has different evaluation components, assignment, test, project work, seminar, presentation, and practical, case analysis etc. in addition to mid and semester written examination