

Enclosure-8.7

Yes. University follows self-appraisal system with different faculty enhancement programs by attending faculty development programme, refresher course and orientation courses in different academic staff colleges. For this process University reimburse the expenditure and gives study leave.