Department of Biosciences:

Department of Biosciences offers B.Sc., M.Sc. & Ph.D. programs in various disciplines of Microbiology, Biotechnology, Zoology, Botany, Food technology, Home science and Biomedical Instrumentation. The department houses excellent infrastructure and well trained faculty members.

Objective of the Conference:

Recent trends in Biosciences has revolutionized in Agriculture, Environment and Health like edible vaccines, Nanomedicine and Metagenomics for drug discovery etc. Despite its success, there are several aspects of modern biotechnology which need significant improvement like life span, biocompatibility and toxicity. A comprehensive interdisciplinary research and development effort is ongoing to address these issues. To motivate young researchers to address these issues, this national conference aims to provide scientific forum and to bring forth the recent advances in medical, agriculture and environmental biotechnology, which will provide opportunity for scientists, academicians and students to interact and share their expertise. Young scientists and research scholars will be given an opportunity to present and discuss their work with their peers and leaders in various disciplines of Microbiology and Biotechnology research through paper and poster sessions. Furthermore it would also enhance career prospects and possibilities for them to excel in their field of interest
